

Felix Kremer

Member of the Supervisory Board, mInvestment Banking S.A.
Managing Director for Financial Steering & Data Management
mBank S.A.

Felix Kremer is an experienced executive with over 20 years of practice in finance, controlling, and data management, gained in an international business environment. He has extensive experience in cross-organizational collaboration between Poland and Germany, combining financial expertise with a deep understanding of corporate governance and regulatory frameworks.

He began his professional career in 2002 at DaimlerChrysler headquarters as part of the international Junior Management Program. After completing his studies in Germany, he consistently developed his career path, gaining experience in finance and controlling within the Daimler Trucks organization.

In 2010, Felix joined mBank in Warsaw, where he has held a number of key roles in the areas of governance, joint projects with Commerzbank AG, compliance, and finance. As Managing Director for Controlling and Data Management, he supports the organization's strategic and decision-making processes and is responsible for cost management as well as analytics and data quality.

Felix provides extensive experience in working with regulatory bodies and operating in highly regulated environments, which translates into a practical approach to transparency, responsible management, and building trust with business partners. As a member and chairman of supervisory boards, he contributes a strategic perspective and the ability to facilitate effective dialogue among stakeholders.

He has completed an international education in finance and management, including a Global Master in Finance (IE Business School) and an International MBA (Warsaw University of Technology Business School). He has also participated in executive development programs, among others at Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Frankfurt School of Finance & Management.

Before entering the business world, Felix was an outstanding rower, winning several national titles and being selected to represent Germany at the World Championships.
